Introduction

In making his defense before King Agrippa, Paul spoke of the hope of the promise (Acts 26:1-7).
Christian hope is an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast (Heb. 6:13-20).

Rebellious Hope

Those who teach as doctrine the precepts of men possess a rebellious hope (Acts 26:4-11).

Revealed Hope

Those who hearken to the word of God possess a revealed hope (Acts 26:12-18, 22-23).

Responsive Hope

Those who are obedient to heaven's message possess a responsive hope (Acts 26:19-20).

Reviled Hope

Those who are faithful to the divine pattern possess a reviled hope (Acts 26:21, 24).

Reasonable Hope

Those who believe and obey the gospel possess a reasonable hope (Acts 26:25-29).

Conclusion

Do you share a saved relationship with Jesus Christ, who is the hope of glory (Col. 1:24-29)?

Have you been justified by His grace through the washing of regeneration and renewing by the Holy Spirit (Titus 3:5-7)?
